

Community health nonprofit organizations funded in this grant cycle:

Health Care:

Local health care nonprofits fill critical gaps in community health services by addressing some of the most pressing needs for timely primary, preventative, acute and emergency care. For example, the NVV's investment in this category ensures every child in Napa County has access to affordable insurance for health, dental, vision and mental health care.

- Community Health Initiative (formerly Children's Health Initiative) ($250,000)
- OLE Health (formerly Clinic OLE) ($1,500,000 in addition to recent $6 million grant toward building new facility)
- PDI Surgery Center ($69,000)
- Planned Parenthood of Northern California ($200,000)
- Queen of the Valley Medical Center CARE Network: ($550,000)
- St. Helena Hospital Family Birth Center ($500,000)

Emotional Health:

Collectively these nonprofits provide services to support mental health, emotional health and resiliency - essential to one's overall health and wellbeing. They employ approaches to best identify and serve vulnerable children and families in finding solutions to often overwhelming circumstances such as mental illness, child abuse and neglect, domestic violence and substance abuse.

- Aldea Children & Family Services ($835,000)
- Girls on the Run ($50,000)
- Mentis (formerly Family Services of Napa Valley) ($300,000)
- Napa Emergency Women's Services ($185,000)

Family Support Services

These organizations connect families with programs and professionals who help them become more stable by incorporating healthy life choices into their homes through enhanced parenting, academic, life and work skills. These building blocks add to the wellbeing and productivity of children, their families and the community as a whole.

- COPE ($350,000)
- ParentsCAN ($100,000)
- Puertas Abiertas Community Resource Center ($75,000)
- UpValley Family Centers of Napa County ($324,000)

Aging Population:

Addressing the needs of an aging population, the work of these nonprofits allows people to remain physically, mentally and socially active and to live safely at home as they strive to have full lives in later years. Collabria Care offers both critical support to caregivers and clients suffering from debilitating diseases, including dementia, and compassionate end-of-life care.

- Area Agency on Aging ($80,000)
- Collabria Care (formerly Napa Valley Hospice & Adult Day Services) ($500,000)
- Rianda House Senior Activity Center ($85,000)
